OLDHAM GETS $300 DAMAGES

Jury in Florida Land Suit Finds That Company Failed to Carry Out Contract.

AGENT SUES FOR PAYMENT

But Oldham is Not Compelled to Pay
$1000 and Receives Damages
Besides.

The jury in the Bliss-Oldham note suit, which was tried in the circuit court yesterday before Special Judge David L. Wilson of Shelbyville, not only failed to demand that Oldham pay off the notes which he was alleged to have owed as the result of a Florida land transaction, but awarded the defendant, which must be paid by Will M. Bliss.

The plaintiff was acting as agent for the Southern Land & Investment Company of Chicago, when the transaction took place in October, 1909. It was brought in the evidence that Mr. Oldham, who resides on a farm in Center township, planned to move to the south or southwest. He held a public sale and besides cash, received $1,347 in sale notes. He declared that he thought Mr. Bliss his friend and bought 320 acres of land in De-soto county, Florida, for $4,800. Mr. Bliss representing that he was selling it at a reduced price and was receiving no commission for his part of the work.

Mr. Oldham also testified that he and his family moved to Florida and located in the town of Ladel, near his tract of land, not moving on it because it was not improved. He said that the Southern Land & Investment Company promised, when he bought the land, to loan him the money with which to improve it. He said that he found the tract which he bought, when he arrived, to be a dreary waste of sand which could not be cultivated without excessive use of fertilizer. He said that the climate was misrepresented to him to be very healthful and invigorating, while, on the contrary, it was very unhealthy. He said that the children in that community were suffering with the hook worm and that many of the residents were ill with malaria.

In the answer which the defendant filed to the first complaint of the plaintiff, it was alleged that the land company promised to pay his car fare back to Rush county if he was dissatisfied with the country and that they had refused to carry out any of their contracts. There it was also stated that a mortgage on the property for $3,200, a check for $253 and $1,347 in sale notes had been given in payment for the land.

Although Mr. Oldham testified Mr. Bliss had represented to him that he would receive no commission, Oldham declares that the plaintiff received the full amount of $1,347 in sale notes for his commission. On the other hand Mr. Bliss testified that that amount was given to him by Sealy B. Mody, secretary of the company.

Besides alleging in the answer that he did not owe the $1,000 in notes, Mr. Oldham asked for the return of the commission of $1,347 and for damages to the amount of $1,650.

IF IT WERE BUT TRUE.

Greensburg Democrat: Now is the season of "cleaning up and keeping clean." Connersville and Rushville have "Clean-up Days" and Greensburg should "go and do likewise." Organization is evrything now-a-days and by organized effort we can make Greensburg blossom like a rose.

YOUNG GIRL IS DEAD

Gladys Cassin, Formerly of This County, Expires in West.

Word has been received in Milroy of the death of Gladys Loraine Cassin at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cassin in Minot, South Dakota. They formerly resided in this county near Milroy. Little Miss Cassin underwent an operation for appendicitis and was unable to recover from the shock. Mr. Cassin is a brother of Mrs. W. S. Mercer in Milroy.

RELEASED, SHE HUGS HUSBAND

Mrs. Stella Pauley, Who Had Brief
Career Here is Freed in Indianapolis Police Court.

TOLD TO BE MORE DISCREET

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pauley of Liberty, who had a rather brief and strange career here and who were later arrested in Indianapolis on a loitering charge, were released from police court there yesterday afternoon. The Indianapolis Star says of their release:

With her arm about her husband's neck, Mrs. Stella Pauley, 16-year-old wife of James A. Pauley, arrested in male attire a few days ago, left Police court yesterday afternoon after having been freed by Judge Collins. The young woman was provided with suitable wearing apparel by charity organizations of the city and appeared in the court room clad in a neat gray suit and a becoming red hat. As soon as Judge Collins advised her and her husband to be more discreet in the future she embraced Pauley and thanked the court as they walked from the room.

IS BEST TENOR EVER HEARD IN RICHMOND

Such is Comment of Newspapers,
Where B. F. Miller Sang in Concert With Jesse Pugh.

J. RILEY SMALL, ACCOMPANIST

A number of persons enjoyed the recital given Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. by B. F. Miller and Jesse Pugh of Rushville and J. Riley Small of Indianapolis, formerly of Rushville, says the Richmond Palladium. The program was a well selected one and Mr. Miller proved to be one of the best tenor singers ever heard in this city.

The first number was in three parts "Beloved it is Morn," "Recitative and Air in Native Worth," and "The Sailor's Grave." These were all sung in an excellent manner and the vocalist was encoored several times. The reading by Mr. Pugh also added to the attractiveness of the evening's program and proved without a doubt the value of the reader's work as a dramatic artist of ability. Mr. Small was the accompanist for the evening, but also appeared in one solo number. The concert reflects credit upon the Y. M. C. A. management and will be long remembered by music lovers.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Omer McDaniel and Estella Grace Wilhelm.

FINDS SHOOK IS NOT GUILTY

Jury Returns Verdict in Gambling Case After Being Out For Fifty Minutes.

DAY IS TAKEN UP BY TRIAL

Bert Beaver is Only Prosecuting Witness Besides Officers Who Made the Raid.

At four o'clock this afternoon, the jury in the case of the State against Jesse Shook, charged in a grand jury indictment with keeping a gaming house, found the defendant not guilty. The jury went out at 3:10 o'clock. Four ballots were taken, the first and second standing ten to two in favor of the defendant. The third was eleven to one and the last ballot the jury agreed on the verdict. Leonard Wewee was foreman.

The Shook case occupied the time of the circuit court all day. The case was called early this morning. Shook is charged with keeping a gaming house in the Grand Hotel. The indictment was returned by the grand jury in February, 1910, as the result of a raid which the police made on the night of January 30, when they found a number of the alleged players in bed with most all of their clothes on. The case has been postponed for a number of times until it was finally called for trial today.

The State offered the testimony of only one witness besides the police who participated in the raid. Bert Beaver testified that he had been playing on that night in the room in the Grand hotel and had lost a small sum of money. Beaver was brought back on the witness stand by the defense for cross examination this afternoon when he had visited several of the local thirst parlors.

The police told of the details of the raid which they made and testified that they found no evidence of gambling.

Jesse Shook was the principal witness for the defense. He denied that he had kept a gaming house and testified that he was a varnisher by trade. Other witnesses for the defense were Don Norris, Denny Ryan and Fred Clevenger.

Megee & Kiplinger acted as attorneys for Shook, while Dennis O'Neil, deputy prosecutor, represented the State.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Catherine B. Smith, Age 69, is Found Dead at Her Home in Oxford, Ohio.

HEART DISEASE, THE CAUSE

Mrs. Catherine B. Smith, sixty-nine years of age, for many years a resident of this county before moving to Oxford, Ohio for residence a few years ago, was found dead at her home there yesterday by her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Flora. Mrs. Smith had gone to her room presumably to rest and had locked the door so as not to be interrupted. When Mrs. Flora went to call her mother, there was no response from the room. The door was opened by force and the aged woman was found dead, sitting in her arm chair. The coroner found that her death was due to heart disease.

ARBOR DAY NOT OBSERVED HERE

Thought Unnecessary Since There is an Abundance of Trees in All the School Yards.

SPECIAL EXERCISES MONDAY

Several Important Events Will be Observed in the Course of Few Weeks.

In the course of the next few weeks several important events will be observed with appropriate exercises in the local schools. Although next Sunday is Arbor day, the day was observed today in various places. The pupils in the city schools did not plant any trees as there is already an abundance, in fact, there are too many, and several were cut down last year. The teachers in the primary grades made reference to Arbor day in short talks to the pupils and this was about the extent of the observance.

Next Monday is what is known as May day and the pupils are preparing special exercises. In most of the lower grades, programs have been arranged and will be rendered in the afternoon. This is an annual even and has been followed for several years.

In accord with the proclamation sent out recently by Charles A. Great-house, State superintendent of public instruction, Mother's day will be observed Friday, May 12, in both the grades and the high school. The purpose of the day is to honor and uplift motherhood and to this end the program will be arranged. The exercises will probably be held in the afternoon. Mother's day is considered an international event and the schools all over the country will hold special exercises.

The next day of special importance is Peace day, which comes on Thursday, May 18. Peace day is the anniversary of the Hague Tribunal and the observance will be in commemoration of the event. The purpose of this day will be to bring before the pupils the idea of patriotism and the exercises will be along the patriotic line. In recent years this event has grown in favor and is now considered worthy of notice in all the schools.

FARM TEAM RUNS AMUCK

Dragging Plow, Clarksburg Horses
Tear Through Streets.

The team of horses, with which Biller Ray of Clarksburg, was plowing his garden, Wednesday became frightened and ran away, dragging a heavy steel beam plow after them, says the Greensburg Democrat. When on the street they collided with a buggy, knocking the horse down, tearing the harness off of it. They also smashed one of the wheels and broke the shafts. The runaway was responsible for considerable other damage among which was the uprooting of a hitching post.

TO DESTROY LANDMARK.

The old covered bridge on the National road, just east of Dunreith, which was erected in 1832 and has done service ever since, affording means for thousands of people to cross the stream at the point, is soon to be torn down. It will be replaced by a modern steel bridge fifty feet long and having a twenty-foot roadway, for which the county commissioners recently appropriated the sum of $3,000.

DELEGATES RETURN HOME

Local Women Attend Annual Session of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Howard Carmichael and Mrs. Fanny Hogsett have returned home after attending the thirty-fifth annual session of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star in Indianapolis. Mrs. Carmichael and Mrs. Hogsett were the delegates from the local chapter. Several others from here attended the two days session, including Earl Payne, who was an interesting spectator at all the meetings.

J. H. WILLIAMS TO DO GREAT WORK

Head of Washington School is Employed by National Reform Bureau to Lecture.

WEST VIRGINIA AND TEXAS

The Rev. Wilbur F. Krafts, D. D., who is at the head of the National Reform Bureau of Washington; D. C., was an over-night guest at the home of the Rev. F. B. Stearns in West Second street. Dr. Krafts, while here arranged with Prof. J. H. Williams of the Washington school, to spend some time in Texas and West Virginia this summer, lecturing in the interest of temperance and other reforms. A great meeting is being planned to be held here on the 16th of May, at which James E. Watson will preside and make a short address, this to be followed by one or two others. The main address will be given by one of the national secretaries of the bureau. The meeting will be in the nature of an endorsement of one of Rushville's citizens, who has been selected by the bureau for this important work among the colored people of the South. Dr. Krafts left this morning for Dayton, Ohio, where he will speak on the coming Sunday. He spoke at the prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church last night, outlining his general work.

JESSE PUGH IN CONCERT

Program Tonight will Include Choice of Local Talent.

The concert to be given tonight in the St. Paul M. E. church under the auspices of the Epworth League, promises to be well attended. The program is made up of the best local talent available and includes such well known singers and artists as Jesse Pugh, B. F. Miller, Florence Frazee, Hazel Cox and many others. Mr. Pugh will give several readings and the entertainment will be of a varied nature.

FALLS IN HOT WATER.

Dale, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doggett, living near the Rush-Decatur county line, is recovering from the effects of falling in a pan of boiling water. The child was playing around the kitchen and became over balanced and sat down in a pan containing the hot liquid.

HAS FIRE PROTECTION.

Spiceland has been recently equipped with splendid fire fighting apparatus and the people feel that they are in a condition now to cope with any fire that may break out. Besides eleven small extinguishers in different parts of the town, there are three chemical engines and a gong.

TO HOLD TRACK MEET ON MAY 13

Arrange For Triangular Contest
Between Connersville, New Castle and Local School.

TWO MEN FOR EACH EVENT

Cup Goes to Winning Team--Fayette County Boys Have Plenty of Material.

Mr. Cantwell has completed arrangements with three high schools to compete in a triangular inter-scholastic track and field meet at Roberts' Park May 13, says the Connersville Examiner. Rushville, New Castle and the local high schools will be represented.

Last year Connersville captured the cup in a dual meet, which was supposed to be quadrangular between New Castle, Liberty, Rushville and Connersville high school, Rushville being the only one that appeared on the field. The score was 76 to 40.

The three schools have agreed to these terms: The contesting team to pay their own traveling and incidental expenses while here; and Connersville to furnish grounds, equipment, and prizes, medals for first place, ribbons for second and third, each school to furnish three men, two to compete in each event. The cup goes to the team which wins it two years in succession.

Great preparations are being made by all the schools concerned, and it promises to be an interesting event. If the Connersville high school wins this year she will own the cup, having won it last year.

None of the officials have been appointed as yet except Willard F. Moore '11, who was official score keeper and announcer last year and has been assigned to the same position this year.

SENIOR CLASS HAS NINE MEMBERS

Carthage High School Commencement
Will be Held Friday Night,
May 12.

ADDRESS BY PROF. SEAMAN

On Friday night, May 12, the annual commencement exercises of the Carthage high school will be held in the Friends church at Carthage. The address will be given by Prof. William G. Seaman, instructor in Philosophy at DePauw University, who will speak on "Education and Wealth." The music for the occasion will be furnished by Wagoner's orchestra of this city.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday night, May 7, in the Fletcher M. E. church, by the Rev. C. M. Wilson. The high school orchestra will furnish music for the service. The class this year is composed of nine members. They are as follows: The Misses Fay Winslow, Miriam Parker, Lucile Chappell, Ethel Heathcock and Mabel Phelps, and Leonard Ruby, Earl Mattox, Ross Redick and Lafe Goldman.

SATURDAY LAST CHANCE.

Saturday of this week will be the last time for filing mortgage exemptions in the county auditor's office. There are many who wait until the last moment and it is people of that class who are crowding the auditor's office at this time.

ORGANIZED EFFORT TO GET DYNAMITERS

Indianapolis Business Men Show
They Are In Earnest.

Indianapolis, April 28.—Civic organizations to the number of about 500, including members of the Manufacturers' association, the Merchants' association and board of trade, met at the board of trade rooms last evening to consider means for apprehending the men who committed the dynamite outrages in this city and to give moral support to the efforts to bring J. J. McNamara and his pals to justice.

Walter Drew, representing the Erectors association addressed the meeting by request and told the story of the dynamite outrages of the past five years. He said that further investigations would take place in all the cities in which explosions had occurred and advised the meeting to take up the subject here and investigate with a view to determine the inspiration of the outrages and the men who were employed in them. He was confident, he said, that all the outrages had a common origin, but that did not mean that all the agents employed are now in custody.

The meeting immediately voted to employ lawyers and detectives to investigate the four explosions that destroyed the property of the non-union contractor Von Spreckelsen and the dynamiting of the Drake property at Columbus this state.

Wound Terminated Fatally.

Lesson V.—Second Quarter, For April 30, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Jonah iii, 5, to iv, 11—Memory Verses, Chapter iv, 10, 11—Golden Text, Matt. xxviii, 19. Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stegns.

The committee calls this a foreign missionary lesson, and it is certainly a grand missionary story, reaching on even to the kingdom when it shall be fully seen that "salvation is of the Lord" (ii, 9). With this saying of Jonah I have in my mind the words of the Lord Jesus to the woman of Samaria, "Salvation is of the Jews" (John vi, 12). Putting the two together we have the great truth that salvation is of the Lord through the Jews. This is and will be seen to be true of all individuals and also of nations. All the redeemed in heaven and on earth owe their redemption to the blood of a Jew, and the nations as such will not be saved till the glory of the Lord is risen upon Israel. Then they shall come to her light and kings to the brightness of her rising (Isa. lx, 1-3; lxii, 1-3; xxviii, 6; Jer. iii, 17; Zech. ii, 10-12).

We have in our lesson the only instance, as far as I know, of a whole city penitent. But when Israel shall have had her resurrection from the dead and a nation of Pauls shall go forth into all the world witnessing as He did in the power of the Spirit, knowing all languages and having all wealth at their command, whole nations shall turn to the Lord in true penitence and "All kings shall fall down before Him, all nations shall serve Him" (Ps. lxxii, 11).

The Lord Jesus spoke of the experience of Jonah in the belly of the fish, his preaching and the repentance of Nineveh, and those who question the truth of the story of Jonah question the veracity of Jesus Christ. It is the work of the devil to question the word of God or the love of God (Matt. xii, 30-41; xvi, 4; Gen. iii, 1-5).

Could there be a more vivid picture of the churches' indifference to the command of Christ in our Golden Text than that of Jonah on this ship? The only man who knew the true God is fast asleep, while the heathen sailors are diligently calling upon their gods. They only found out who he was and why he was there by questioning him.

In a certain place we read that Jesus could not be hid (Mark vii, 24), but some who bear the name of Christian seem to hide Him quite successfully. Contrast II Cor. iv, 10, 11; ii, 14. Think of Samson and his fatal sleep, Peter, James and John asleep in the presence of great privilege and also of great suffering and consider if you need the question of chapter i, 6, and if so what will your answer be? As to the great fish prepared by the Lord to take care of Jonah I often wonder why people have been so long looking for fishes of the same kind, for the record does not say that the Lord made two great fishes to propagate the species, but that He prepared a great fish.

For aught we know the fish may have died when it finished its ministry to Jonah, as probably did the little fish that brought the coin to Simon Peter.

The winds of i, 4; iv, 8, were special winds for the occasion, as were also the gourd and the worm of iv, 6, 7, special preparations for special ministry. I have long rejoiced in the truth of Eph. ii, 10, and firmly believe that all the good works of all the Lord's people are prepared beforehand for them to walk in. It is helpful to say concerning all things, pleasant or unpleasant, "prepared for me by infinite love."

With all Jonah's peculiarities he seems to have been a man full of the word of God, for his prayer in chapter ii is almost wholly Scripture. In the margin of my Bible I note in his prayer nine quotations from or references to the Psalms, besides some from other parts of Scripture. When he did finally start for Nineveh the word of the Lord to him was, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee" (iii, 2). Compare Jer. i, 7; Ezek. ii, 7; iii, 11; II Tim. iv, 2; Acts viii, 4, 25, and note that our Lord Himself said only what the Father told Him to say (John xii, 49; xiv, 10; xvi, 28).

It would be a great thing and greatly to the glory of God and the good of both speakers and hearers if all preachers and teachers would prove themselves to be "the Lord's messengers in the Lord's message unto the people" (Hag. i, 13). All such might rest assured that His word would always accomplish His pleasure and never return to Him void (Isa. lv).

Jonah was like a man alive from the dead, and His message was the Lord's and not his own, and the people of Nineveh believed God (iii, 5) and turned from their evil ways unto God, and God saw it and did not bring the threatened evil upon them. It would have pleased Jonah better if God had destroyed Nineveh. And because he knew that God was gracious and might have mercy upon them if they repented he refused at first to obey God (iv, 1-3).

Concerning God's repentings mentioned in chapter iii, 10, and in so many other places in Scripture we must remember that God cannot and never does change His mind about anything, for He knew everything from the beginning (Acts xv, 18), but He does change His mode of procedure, and as God always knew that He would just at that place in history and in that way.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning April 30, 1911.

Topic.—A missionary journey around the world.—IV. Missions in Hawaii and the Philippines.—Isa. ix, 1-12. Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

In the topical reference Isaiah predicts the coming of the gentiles into the kingdom of God and its increased glory as a result of their entrance into it. Included in this prophecy is a special reference to the "sea" and its "islands," which indicated that the inhabitants of islands would turn toward the Messiah and accept Him as their Saviour. "The gentiles shall come to thy light and kings to the brightness of thy rising. . . . The abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee. . . . Surely the isles shall wait for thee." And the "isles" waited long for the Redeemer and gladly accepted Him when at last He was made known unto them. There is no more interesting chapter in the history of missions than that which tells the story of the carrying of the gospel to the islands of the sea.

1. Missions in Hawaii. The history of missions in Hawaii relates one of the most significant triumphs of the gospel. The work was begun as the result of the conversion in 1813 of several Hawaiian boys who had gone to New Haven, Conn. One of these, Henry Obookiah, who had longed to preach the gospel to his countrymen, died in 1817. His consistent Christian life and peaceful death, however, did more for the conversion of his people than ever he could have done. His pathetic story touched many hearts, and two years later missionaries were ready to go to the Hawaiian Islands.

March 31, 1820, the first band of missionaries to Hawaii reached Honolulu. They found the "isles" waiting and longing for the Saviour. Idolatry had been destroyed. The missionaries were gladly received by the king, and his chiefs and the king's mother, Keopulohi, was the first convert. The subsequent history of the work is one of the miracles of modern missions. In 1824 the Sabbath was recognized and the Ten Commandments adopted as the basis of government. The Bible was circulated, chiefs were converted and worked among their people, and great revivals marked the progress of the work. One of these revivals lasted for six years, and during these years 27,000 persons were received into the church. In less than half a century Hawaii was won for Christ. Today it is one of the island possessions of our own country, and Americans should see to it that the banner of the cross as well as that of the stars and stripes is ever kept floating over it.

2. Missions in the Philippine Islands. The Philippine Islands were discovered and conquered by the Spaniards in the sixteenth century, and until the close of the recent Spanish-American war the Catholic church directed the Christian activities of the islands. The Philippines at that time, however, offered a fruitful field of missionary enterprise, and the Protestant churches of our land were quick to take advantage of the opportunities presented to them. The work thus far has been very successful.

Missionary work is carried on among the Filipinos by all modern methods. Evangelistic work is given the first place, and from all missionary stations encouraging reports are received as to the effectiveness of the preaching of the gospel. Educational work is given a prominent place. Schools of various kinds have been organized. Medical missions are emphasized. Hundreds of patients are annually treated in Christian hospitals. Native girls are becoming trained nurses. Thus, as Christ and the apostles advanced His kingdom by preaching, teaching and healing, the missionaries of the cross in the Philippines follow the same methods today and with evident success.

Christian Endeavor has a place in Philippine missions. A recent report of the work on the island of Leyte says, "Christian Endeavor meetings are held weekly in Massin, Baybay and Macarohan and are well attended and productive of evident good results." The Evangelical Union of the Philippine Islands is an association embracing all the Protestant denominations at work in the Philippines except the Protestant Episcopal church.

How To Cure Your Own Kidneys

A New Guaranteed Treatment. The Best That The World's Best Kidney Specialists Could Give You.

Here is the best remedy for your kidneys, backache, and the diseases that come from bad kidneys that the world's greatest brains can give you. Take advantage of it. Cut this out and keep it. If your kidneys are too far gone, nothing else may save you. It then rests with your Maker.

Now, if you have pain in the small of the back, at times or constantly, if the urine is profuse or scanty, if it is smoky or cloudy after it stands a few hours, or has a bad odor, or if you have pain in the bladder or a touch of rheumatism anywhere, the chances are almost 100 to 1 that your kidneys are clogged with body poisons of various kinds.

Bladder troubles, rheumatism, Bright's disease and so on, come from bad, dying kidneys. They can't throw out the poisons.

Stop everything else you may be taking for your kidneys, bladder or rheumatism. Stop. Put your whole heart and soul in the following treatment and go to bed tonight never more doubting for a moment that you will be quickly relieved and saved.

Go to your druggist and ask him for Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills, nothing more. Every box, every pill is guaranteed. You will say it is the greatest remedy that man has ever found. Some of the most prominent men and women of the country believe in them because they have been cured by them.

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are safe, give no bad after effects. In the first 24 hours you will feel different, better.

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists—25 cents and 50 cents. If you want to test them first, just ask your druggist for a free sample package.

PAGE OUT OF LOST BOOK OF THE PAST

The Toltecs Not the First Americans.

Mexico City, April 28.—Dr. Edward Seler of Berlin, Germany, a noted archeologist, who has been in Mexico for some time conducting researches into ancient civilizations, confirms the report that was recently made by Prof. William Niven of this city of the discovery of the buried ruins of a great city in the upper end of the valley of Mexico. Dr. Seler says that the race of people who built and inhabited the ancient city belonged to an unknown civilization that far antedated the Toltecs. The tops of the large buildings are eighteen feet beneath the present bed of the valley. Many wonderful and strange relics, different from anything heretofore discovered, have already been taken from the ruins.

PRICES GOING UP

New Law Boosts Rates on Indiana Schoolbooks.

Indianapolis, April 28.—New geographies and histories for the public schools of Indiana will cost more than the ones now in use. Eleven publishing companies submitted bids to the state board of education ranging from 75 cents to $1.05 for geographies and from 65 cents to 75 cents for histories. The board set May 15 as the date for awarding the contracts and the bidders were asked to submit briefs outlining the merits of their books. The increased prices are explained by the law, which requires schoolbook publishers to pay dealers a commission of 15 per cent. Only a 5 per cent commission was required when the contracts were awarded for the Frye geography and Montgomery histories, which have been in use for years.

More Option Elections.

Indianapolis, April 28.—Thursday's local option elections resulted in victories for the dries in one township in Franklin county, three in Jackson, one in Whitley and three in White, while the wets won one in the latter county, the township in which Reynolds is located.

GAVE HIMSELF UP

Indiana Fugitive Tired of Roaming the Earth.

Marion, Ind., April 28.—William Mitchell, alias Dago Mitchell, brought here from Shelbyville by Captain James Thompson of the Marion police, will enter a plea of self-defense for the murder of William (City Sport) Jones, March 1, 1901. Mitchell says he protected an old soldier Jones was trying to defraud, and they quarreled. When Jones put his hand in his pocket Mitchell says he stabbed him for fear Jones intended to shoot.

Mitchell says he wandered over the country after the murder and made one trip to Liverpool, always in fear of arrest, until, broken in health, and on the advice of friends, he decided to surrender.

GOLDEN SUN COFFEE is put up in five different Blends—one to suit each of the five different coffee tastes. Experience shows there are five distinct coffee likes. After a generation of experiment we—the largest and oldest house of coffee experts in the world—have produced five blends that exactly meet the demands of all coffee drinkers.

Now, at last, you are able to buy your coffee by the Blend and Flavor and get exactly what you want. Golden Sun Coffee may save you 10 to 20 cents a pound, for you may find our lowest priced blend is precisely the Flavor you prefer. Ask your grocer today to show you the five different packages. He will also give you the Table of Tastes so that you can choose the cup of coffee you like best.

Golden Sun Coffee has been ripened and roasted and blended to perfection. Put up in pound packets, hermetically sealed at the right moment after roasting to preserve for your table all the rich, natural oil of the coffee berry. All this coffee goodness you lose when you buy coffee of irresponsible peddlers or coffee exposed in open bins or put up in ordinary packages. Golden Sun gives you the most and best coffee you can buy and the flavor you particularly like.

Gov. Wilson has got a lot of business through the New Jersey Legislature, and the voters who don't like it know just where to find him, instead of hunting up cogs of a machine scattered all through Jersey City's trust buildings.

The Democrats are behaving fairly well just now, but one must remember every 10 years they work up a new scheme for making everyone twice as rich by dividing up their dollars into little pieces.

The joke in the McNamara case is on Governor Marshall, says the Marion Chronicle. He is accused by labor leaders of having participated in a scheme to railroad the accused man out of the State, and this at a time when the governor was willing to go to any lengths to please anybody whose influence would count in favor of his presidential candidacy. The governor in one breath says that he had no discretion in the matter, and in the next that hereafter he proposes to use discretion.

In so doing he proposes a procedure which will involve him in no end of trouble—namely, that he does not propose hereafter to turn any prisoner over on requisition without a hearing. This means that if a prisoner is held in Indiana for a crime committed in Ohio, he must be brought to Indianapolis and a trial held by the governor before he is turned over to some other State. In most cases a requisition is granted before an arrest is made. The accused man who is called to Indianapolis for a hearing may decide to jump out of a governor's jurisdiction. There are scores of these cases every year, and there will be some while Governor Marshall is taking his annual sojourn of a month or so at Petoskey. But if an attempt is made to take the accused man to Northern Michigan for a hearing he might ask for a leave of absence after crossing the State line. And after all, the announcement of this program only makes the world wonder why it remained for the McNamara case to reveal to the governor the injustice of turning a prisoner over to another State on the basis of indictments returned in that State. Was it not Governor Marshall who volleyed and thundered at Mount and Durbin for declining to release Governor Taylor to the tender mercies of the Goebelized courts and juries of Kentucky? It is to be feared that the governor will have to continue to place his main reliance on the Model License League and other sour mash societies for the propagation of his presidential boom. Even Samuel Gompers, who told Indiana audiences that the Columbia City corporation lawyer had acquired insomnia lying awake of nights pondering on the wrongs of the workingman, has gone back on the erstwhile friend of labor and estimates that he is a tool of predatory plutocracy, although he must know that if Governor Marshall should meet a plutocrat at this juncture of his presidential candidacy, he would cross to the other side of the street in order to avoid recognizing him.

SHE goes to the store in which she has the greatest confidence. She does not judge stores by what they CLAIM to do, but what they DO do. She goes to the store that she has learned always gives all or more than they promise. While some stores are always claiming to give unheard of values, it is quite often the case that some other store, not claiming so much is really giving BETTER VALUES. While we are firm believers in advertising, we know that women judge us mostly by WHAT WE DO and not what we say; hence we depend upon REAL GENUINE VALUE giving to get customers and KEEP them. The members of the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity will entertain with a very pretentious dancing party at the Modern Woodmen hall this evening. A number of guests have been invited, including many Rushville young people as well as many visiting guests. Many of the high school alumni and former students who were Kappa Alpha Phis in high school, are expected to attend. The dance, so it is planned, will be "stunt" and the decorations are to be decidedly unique. An orchestra, composed of colored musicians of Indianapolis, will furnish the music.

Several Rushville people witnessed the performance of "Rob Roy," a light opera, by students of Indiana University at the Murat theater in Indianapolis last evening. There was considerable local interest attached to the presentation since Miss Louise Craig and Miss Emma Peters, both of this city, and students in the University, were in the cast and since there are many graduates and former students of Indiana University in this city. Miss Kathleen Stillwell of Anderson, well known here, who played the leading role, that of Janet, the daughter of the mayor of Perth, was easily the most accomplished actor of the company. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and has visited friends here.

AMUSEMENTS

The Vaude will present two Imp films and a Thanhouser tonight. The first Imp is entitled "Sweet Memories," and tells a story full of human interest. The other Imp, "The Devotion of Women" is a modern society drama and is said to be well acted. The Thanhouser drama, "Adrift" is the story of a shipwreck which is very realistic.

The Palace will have a Biograph and a Lubin film for tonight. The Biograph "Comrades" tells the story of two tramps who hear that a member of Parliament is to visit a nearby resident. One of them impersonates this gentleman and the result is both get in bad. The Lubin film, "The Bogus Uncle" is a delightful love-comedy, which teaches that one's rich uncles should be real. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand will present three pictures tonight. The first is an Imp entitled "In Old Madrid." It is a Spanish comedy-drama in which Owen Moore and Little Mary, formerly of the Biograph company, are the leading characters. The second picture is an Itala entitled "Toto Wants to Get Thinner." It is a comedy full of fun. The third picture is also an Itala entitled "Queen of the Sea," a drama. Earl Robertson will sing "Since I've Been Going With You."

The new Portola theater will show a Biograph and a Kalem for this evening's program. "Comrades," a Biograph comedy, is said to be one of the best pictures of the sort ever produced by that company. The story depicts the life of two boys, who do not do the "Damon and Pythias" stunt by any means. The situations which the story places the two unique characters are decidedly amusing. The Kalem picture, "Priscilla and the Piquet" is an Indian story which is said to be far above the average for that class of films.

In the evolution of medicine and surgery the masters of these professions have resorted to the use of the lower animals in making tests by which the human family profits. The rabbit and the guinea pig are the lower animals in which the heart action is closest to that of the human being.

The monkey tribe, however, is the family in which the action of the lungs is closest to that of man. Monkeys are particularly subject to pulmonary tuberculosis, or in plain language, consumption. Among monkeys the deadly white plague reaps its toll almost without resistance.

Several years ago the medical world evolved the theory that open air was the surest preventative for tuberculosis of the lungs. This scientific disclosure was quickly caught up by the Gentry Brothers, proprietors and owners of Gentry Brothers All New Feature Shows. To them it meant much.

Conducting a trained animal exhibition, that has arisen to the apex of fame, Gentry Brothers used monkeys. The loss among the simians from tuberculosis was appalling. When the fresh air treatment was expounded Gentry Brothers decided upon drastic moves. They decreed that monkeys for all time should live in open air.

Following this decision came a most remarkable demonstration of how nature provides for her own. Nature soon provided the simians, destined to open air in a northern winter, with heavy coats of hair. These coats were heavier than any ever before seen on monkeys. The monkeys were left in open air all the year, their only protection being a dry goods box. Since then Gentry Brothers have lost but two monkeys, whereas twenty-five was the usual toll of the plague in the winter.

The monkeys, strangely enough welcome their new mode of living. All summer they are left in unconfined spaces. In winter they are offered only enough protection to break the wintry winds. The result is that the simians are acclimated, there is no tuberculosis among them and the only troupe of year-round open air monkeys in the world are with Gentry Brothers All New Feature Shows which will be in the city Tuesday.

CHAPTER XI.

THE forces allied with Rollins themselves attempted publicity. But against their publicity Breed had put an enormous practical benefit; against their appeals he had put an enormous practical benefit, and the tide of public favor, springing not from the printed pages of the morning and afternoon papers, but from lip to lip, set in so strongly in his direction that it reached every investor. Breed at 4 cents—later at cost!

To the victor belongs the spoils, and the spoils of this war were the profits. Breed succeeded through Kelvin in that apparently impossible dream of every railroad man since Stephenson invented the steam engine—the concentration of every railroad in the United States under one management. Then he sent for Rollins.

"Well, I kept my word," said Breed. "I told you I meant to have control of every mile of railroad in the United States, and now I have it. I have sent for you to take over their management."

Rollins was pale, and there were dark rings under his eyes. "I don't know if I want it. There is only one condition under which I could accept, and it would be folly in me to expect you to grant me that."

"You might mention it," observed Breed dryly.

"The condition is that I may do as I see fit, may work absolutely unhampered. Man," he suddenly burst forth, "you don't know how many years I have dreamed of this! It has been the ambition of my life to put this great public utility upon the plane of its proper relation to the public."

"That is my own dream," Breed declared.

"I find belief difficult," replied Rollins. "Moreover, I had imagined that Mr. Kelvin here was to have some say in the matter of management."

Breed smiled and looked at Phillip. "I have larger work for him," he said. "Larger!" exclaimed Rollins. "Can there be anything bigger than to combine a quarter of a million miles of railroad, every foot of transportation highway in the United States, under one economic head, eliminating graft and waste and putting them all upon a working basis of legitimate profit and public safety?"

Breed waved his hand. "Much larger," said he. "This is only an incident. I wish you would tell me just what reforms you propose instituting, Mr. Rollins."

"First of all," said Rollins earnestly, reassured. "I would secure for every through line 120 pound open hearth steel rails, made in new mills from larger ingots, with the cones of impurity cast entirely aside and the compact residue kneaded into a proper consistency by an entirely new system of rolls. There are other things that need to be done—the establishment of perfect block systems, of automatic brakes and other accident preventing devices and the abolition of grade crossings—but the main matter of public safety rests in perfect rails. Ten years ago I tried to fight this proposition, and I nearly succeeded. The Tallahassee Iron and Coal company offered to make open hearth rails to my specifications. The United Steel corporation found that to control the stock of the Tallahassee Iron and Coal company was much cheaper and more profitable than to spend the needed millions in re-equipping their plant."

"Your first step, then, I suppose, would be to begin a fight on the United Steel corporation," observed Breed. "That, in a nutshell, is our problem," declared Rollins.

"Your problem is already solved, Mr. Rollins," said Kelvin, with a smile. "Mr. Breed's control of the railroads"

IT GROWS HAIR

Here Are Facts we Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Thos. W. Lytle.

has left the United Steel corporation high and dry. Moreover, we have secured entire control of the Iroquois Iron range, and, no matter what the United Steel corporation does, we shall set up our own rolling mills and make rails by our own process from our own ore."

"But the program will be left entirely to your own discretion," interrupted Breed. "You shall have a contract for one year, renewable for ten years if your preliminary steps meet with my approval."

"Allow me to understand," said Rollins. "In that year I am to be absolutely without interference in any way?"

"With two exceptions," replied Breed. "I want a private rebate on all shipments of bread or cereal stuffs. Next, here is a list of names. These men are not to be employed in any capacity nor benefited in any way."

Rollins looked over the list and smiled. "There isn't a man here whom I would lift a finger to save. There is not a man in that list but has had an interest in car company, a coupler company, a brake company, a locomotive tire company or some other manufacturing concern which furnished supplies to his own railroad at enormous prices. There is to be no graft in the new construction."

"Certainly not," agreed Breed. "These roads must be conducted for legitimate profit and public safety. If there is any graft I want it myself, and I am content to take dividends for mine. For one year you are the absolute dictator of the largest empire in the world—the combined railroads of the United States."

From his desk he took a contract, confined to one sheet of paper, which he handed to Rollins.

That gentleman took the paper, read it over and caught his breath. "It is a generous salary," he admitted, "more generous than I should have dared to ask for."

"Hub! I am saving money on it," declared Breed. "It's only a portion of a thousand fancy salaries that I expect you to stop at once."

Rollins nodded his head in comprehension. "I will take great pleasure in stopping a few of them."

Kelvin conducted Rollins to a room, next to his own, that had been fitted with a commodious desk and all that should go with it. Rollins sat upon the desk and looked about him smilingly.

"Looks fairly complete, doesn't it? Did you have a hand in this?"

"No," said Kelvin, puzzled and piqued as well. "It has been arranged for a long time, I think. Mr. Breed has probably been planning to make Forest Lakes the capital of New York city."

"Perhaps the capital of the United States," retorted Rollins, smiling in answer to the jest. "Who knows? He has a good start. He has paid a lot of attention to detail too. Everything is complete now except for a secretary, and idly he touched one of the row of buttons along the right hand edge of his desk, the one marked "Secretary."

Instantly the door of the adjoining room opened, and a sober faced and

THE AGONY OF A BABY UNDER A SKIN AFFLICTION

Is all the more terrible because it can't tell you how it suffers. But there is relief at hand—not only relief but a permanent cure from prickly heat, rashes, hives, eczema and all other skin affections so prevalent among infants during the summer months. If you want to see your baby rest easy once again—and a look of relief spread over its little face just apply this splendid remedy ZEMO. We believe honestly and sincerely that in ZEMO you will find the cure you have been praying for. We can tell you in all truth that we have made thousands and thousands of parents happy with this simple but sure remedy.

And to prove our absolute sincerity, we have instructed all druggists selling ZEMO, to refund the purchaser his money if the very first bottle does not bring relief. Used persistently thereafter ZEMO is bound to cure.

noncommittal looking young man, ruddy cheeked and clean eyed and tow headed, walked in, notebook in hand. "Hello!" said Rollins. "Who are you?"

"I am your secretary, sir. I came last night. My name is Jens Nelson."

"Svedish, eh?" guessed Rollins. "Yes, sir," said Mr. Nelson. "I am a graduate of the Minnesota Technical college, founded by Mr. Breed, and am one of his scholarship men."

Rollins smiled over the naïveté of this admission.

"All right, Mr. Nelson," said he. "You have a telegraph operator here. I believe, Mr. Kelvin?"

"Wireless," amended Phillip.

Rollins glanced at his row of buttons and nodded his head. "Mr. Nelson, you may take these marconigrams," and without any hesitation he began dictating peremptory discharges to a long list of railroad officials.

Thus set in the new empire—the empire of the iron highway, an empire which held under its absolute control the commercial destinies of the nation, an empire more powerful than any ever conceived by man. It was a reign that began peacefully and quietly as the stern Rollins, with a smile, dispossessed half a thousand men from their fat sinecures. But as he worked Henry Breed, attended by Dr. Zephph and carrying a bundle of golf sticks, stopped in the door a moment.

"By the way, Rollins," said he, "there is only one personal provision I wish to make, and that must be seen to from the first. I want my dividends all in cash—nothing else, understand—just cash!"

One day several months later Dr. Zephph was very angry. He couldn't find Breed. While he was searching for the millionaire Sumner Rollins appeared.

"IN VIOLENCE," RETURNED BLAGG.

"I came down rather unexpectedly," he said. "I suppose Kelvin's in his office?"

"No," said the doctor, rather shortly. "Mr. Kelvin is not in his office. He is out with Mrs. Rensselaer and young Rensselaer and Miss Breed fishing—fishing in a private lake for pet fish that come up to be fed when they are called!"

"It doesn't sound much like sport," confessed Rollins, "but, after all, I envy them. Where is Mr. Breed?"

Again the frown returned that all the morning had crossed Dr. Zephph's brow. "I don't know," he snapped, "but he is some place about the house. I'll find him for you."

He stepped into Henry Breed's dim old library, slamming the door behind him.

Going back through the upper hall, Rollins stopped for a moment in Bagg's room, where the wireless operator sat idly at his instrument, the greenish light giving to his gaunt features a particularly deathlike ghastliness.

He handed Rollins two wireless messages, which the latter read with a passing frown. One was signed by the head of an immense packing house in Chicago, the other by the president of the largest fruit shipping company on the western coast. To both he dictated the same curt reply:

"Discussion positively closed."

Blagg read the answers with a grim smile. "Allow me to congratulate you," said he. "You may not know it, but you are doing splendid preliminary work for the social equity cause."

"The preliminary work?" repeated Rollins. "How do you think it will be finished?"

"In violence," returned Bagg, with a darkening brow.

Rollins shrugged his shoulders. "Violent conversation largely, I guess," he rejoined.

Blagg's eyes snapped. "Deeds!" he declared. "Let inequality and oppression go on for but a short time more and there will be such a revolt from the darker depths of this country as not even France has ever known. There exists even now a close organization of the underdogs who are ready at a word to rise and undo the wrongs to which justice has grown blind."

"You seem to know a lot about it," commented Rollins.

Blagg calmed down his excitement with an effort. "I keep fairly well posted," said he. "Among other things I know that there is a branch of that organization which needs just such men as you."

"I am rather busy as it is," returned Rollins dryly, and walked over to his own office. "Have you prepared the data I asked you to get ready, Nelson?" inquired Rollins.

"Yes, sir," replied Nelson. He walked across to a filing cabinet, brought from it a drawer, which he set upon Rollins' desk, and lifted up the spring. Rollins leafed through the indexed

CATARRH DOCTOR

Cures Catarrh, Acute or Chronic, or Money Back.

Would you pay one dollar to rid yourself of disgusting catarrh?

Then go to F. B. Johnson & Co., today and ask him for a Hyomei outfit and you will not only engage, but you will own outright a little catarrh doctor that has cured more cases of catarrh than all the catarrh specialists on earth.

In the $1.00 box which contains the Hyomei outfit, you will find a little hard rubber vest pocket inhaler.

Into this inhaler you pour a few drops of Hyomei. Then all you have to do is breathe through the little inhaler, either through the nose or mouth, according to where the catarrh is located.

When you breathe HYOMEI you breathe a powerful yet soothing, antiseptic air, as it passes over the inflamed and germ ridden membrane penetrates every fold and service and destroys germs completely.

Stomach dosing never cured catarrh, spray and douches always fail; and why? because they don't get where the germs are, and as catarrh is a germ disease you must kill the germs, before you can cure catarrh. HYOMEI is guaranteed by F. B. Johnson & Co., and by druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup and sore throat.

flaps, beneath which, very carefully arranged, were displayed the mileage distances by various routes between all important points in the United States, with the percentage of grade resistance figured in units, these, compounded with the mileage, showing the ultimate hauling resistance. It had been a tremendous task. It was neatly and perfectly accomplished, yet Nelson showed neither elation nor diffidence.

"This is splendidly done," observed Rollins after a long interval of careful inspection.

"Thank you," said Nelson quietly.

Rollins glanced up at him with puzzled curiosity. "That will do just now," said he, with a slight frown, and Jens walked composedly into his own room, a fathomless enigma to Rollins.

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous Rushville People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease, follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with the reliable and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this locality.

Mrs. C. Theabald, S. Montgomery St., Shelbyville, Ind., says: "Three years ago I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in a statement I made for publication and at this time I willingly endorse the remedy again. I have since procured Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given me relief from various symptoms of kidney complaint. I know that this remedy lives up to the claims made for it and for that reason, I advise other kidney sufferers to give it a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

READY FOR ARREST OF EDWARD TILDEN

Illinois Senate Charges Him With Contempt.

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms Hatfield has departed for Chicago to make service on warrants issued by Lieutenant Governor John G. Oglesby for the arrest of Edward Tilden, the Chicago packer, and his banking associates.

Those whose arrests are ordered with Tilden are: W. C. Cummings and George M. Benedict. All are charged with contempt for refusing to appear before the Illinois senate committee which is investigating the election to the United States senate of William Lorimer. Tilden, as president of the National Packing company, is alleged to have been closely connected with the Lorimer election by acting as the custodian of the $100,000 fund declared to have been used in the campaign. Cummings is president of the Drovers' Trust and Savings company and Benedict is cashier of the Drovers' Deposit National bank, both of Chicago.

The action of the senate in ordering the arrests was taken on recommendation of the senate bribery investigation committee after Tilden, Cummings and Benedict had refused to produce Tilden's personal bank accounts for the months of May, June, July and August, 1900. The committee believes the bank accounts will show evidence of the use of money in the election of Lorimer.

ANOTHER CLEW

Indiana Powder Dealer Identifies Cans Found at Wrecked Plant.

Portland, Ind., April 28.—Nitroglycerine used by persons who destroyed the structural iron mill of McClintock, Marshall & Co., at Peoria, Sept. 4 last, was sold by M. J. Morehart, manager of the local magazine of the Du Pont company at Portland.

Monday, August 9 last year, Morehart delivered at Albany, near this city, 100 quarts of the explosive to a man who gave him name as J. B. McGraw. McGraw answers, Morehart says, the description of J. B. McNamara, arrested at Detroit a few days ago and taken to Los Angeles to answer for the wrecking of buildings in which many lives were lost. McGraw gave as a reason for buying the nitroglycerine that he was the owner of a large stone quarry at Peoria and wished to use it in blasting. He met Morehart with an auto and the dangerous stuff was transferred.

The Peoria explosion, set off by wreckers under the McClintock-Marshall plant was only partly successful, and Morehart, it is said, has identified cans found planted at the Peoria mill, as some of those sold to McGraw.

An Interesting Possibility.
London, April 28.—It is reported that Lieutenant Colonel Sir Matthew Nathan is to replace Sir Eldon Gorst, who has been British agent and consul general in Egypt since 1907, when he succeeded Lord Cromer. If the change materializes Sir Matthew will be the first Hebrew to hold power in Egypt since Joseph.

SHE RECOGNIZES HER OLD LODGER

Mrs. Ingersoll Positive Jim McNamara Is "Bryce."

CAME FACE TO FACE WITH HIM

If He Recognized Her He Gave No Sign, but She Was Positive in Her Declaration That He Was the Man Sought—McManigal Denies Confession and Then Repeats It.—John J. McNamara Issues Address.

Los Angeles, April 28.—Ostensibly to hear from J. D. Fredericks, district attorney, an outline of his legal rights, James B. McNamara, called to the office of the county jail, came face to face with Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll of San Francisco. She identified him positively as "J. B. Bryce," a lodger in her house in that city last September, the man who is alleged to have bought the dynamite that wrecked the Times building, killing twenty-one persons.

Dropping the mask he has been wearing for the benefit of his alleged accomplices in numerous dynamiting outrages, Orrie McManigal practically has revealed himself as the star informer of the W. J. Burns detective agency and principal witness for the prosecution in the trial of the McNamaras. McManigal not only has been in close touch with Burns, but it is practically certain that he has received pay from Burns for serving him by playing his part in all the acts of the so-called "wrecking crew" to which he has confessed. His fear of consequences should the McNamaras and their friends learn his exact relation to Burns explains the precautions taken to prevent the truth from becoming known until all were safely in jail. Burns evidently learned enough about McManigal to compel the latter to go through with his part as commanded and tell Burns every move of the wrecking crew and the location of every dynamite plant.

After conferring with Attorney Hilton, John J. McNamara prepared a statement to union men throughout the country, in which he says: "In this second attempt to crush and discredit the cause we represent I realize fully the desperation of the enemies of labor arrayed against us, but I am of good heart, for it will fail."

"That I am innocent of any infraction of the law in word or act needs no emphasis from me, for the truth is mighty and will prevail right speedily, and for it I can afford to and shall contentedly wait.

"I send to all brothers and friends of union labor the world over my earnest and affectionate greetings, with the assurance that there is no villainy of conspiracy possible of which we are afraid. I am also confident that it is not asking too much of the public to suspend judgment in these matters until opportunity for a full and fair defense has been afforded."

When J. B. McNamara was taken to the office in the county jail he believed the purpose of the trip was a conference with District Attorney Fredericks. Mrs. Ingersoll was stationed at a point in the jail office where she could look him squarely in the face as he entered. If he recognized her, his self-control was wonderful, for after merely a glance he turned his eyes to the district attorney, who told him his legal rights, and in a few minutes McNamara was taken back to his cell.

Mrs. Ingersoll, according to the district attorney, declared in positive terms that James McNamara is the one who, under the name of J. B. Bryce, was a lodger in her house in San Francisco last September.

Attorneys Hilton and Harriman were in conference with the prisoners for three hours. McManigal was the first one they saw. Hilton, in the presence of two witnesses he had for the express purpose, asked McManigal, "Have you made any confession of any sort?"

"I have never made a confession," was the reply.

The witnesses will be used, if a confession is introduced, to discredit it by swearing that McManigal denied ever having confessed anything.

As soon as the district attorney heard what Hilton had done he had McManigal taken to the prosecutor's office. There McManigal is said to have repeated the confession Burns says he made in Chicago.

According to a Burns man the confession of McManigal reveals a long series of dynamiting outrages which, according to McManigal, were planned for Los Angeles and vicinity. These included the proposed dynamiting of the Los Angeles aqueduct, now under construction, the destruction of some of the city's personal water reservoirs and pipe lines, and a number of explosions in various parts of the city for the purpose of terrorizing the people.

McManigal is said to have told in detail of a large number of cases of dynamiting in other cities. The confession conforms closely to that given out in Chicago, the trend of which has been printed.

LOCAL NEWS

New Castle Courier: John Rutledge of Rushville, is employed at the L. E. & W. office here temporarily.

There are so many Ritchies in Milroy that it is very difficult to distinguish between them. It was B. J. Ritchie's home instead of Squire Ben F. Ritchie's where burglars attempted to break in one night recently. B. J. and B. F. both operate pool rooms.

An ordinance directed against the housefly, and providing for compulsory screening of all places in which these insects breed in great numbers, has been prepared by the officers of the Federated Clubs of Connersville, and will be presented to the city council at its next meeting.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. John C. Miles, who died Sunday of apoplexy at her home in Boston, Mass. The funeral occurred yesterday at St. John's New Brunswick. The deceased, who was the mother of Mrs. W. S. Hill of Spice-land, is survived by her husband, two daughters and a son.

Ralph Cox of Bartlesville, Okla., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. R. W. Cox, in North Morgan street.

The Pythian Sisters will present "Parson Poor's Donation Party" next Wednesday evening at the K. of P. hall.

Ed J. Hancock, Secretary of State Board of Forestry Says Work is Progressing Rapidly.

ONCE ON NEWSPAPER HERE

Is Attempting to Find Person or Organizations in Every City to Push Movement.

Ed. J. Hancock, formerly editor of the Daily Republican, who is now secretary of the State Board of Forestry, was in New Castle yesterday, on account of the meeting of Henry County Historical Society, which was held as a memorial to the life of Benjamin S. Parker, Henry county's poet who died several weeks ago. The New Castle Courier says of his visit:

Ed. J. Hancock, secretary of the State Board of Forestry and conservation, was in the city today discussing the work in which he is now engaged. The object of his coming was to ascertain whether or not some local person or organization could not be interested in the conservation movement now on foot.

Hancock is a former newspaper man and well known in this city. He was forced to retire from the journalistic field by reason of an affliction of his eyes. Since retiring there has been but little improvement. However, he is very cheerful and hopes for the best, as do all his friends.

Mr. Hancock stated this morning that he came to New Castle today because of the fact that Charles W. Fairbanks and Amos W. Butler were both to pay some attention to the subject of conservation in their addresses before the Historical Society.

Hancock says that the movement is being well received throughout the State, but the people as a rule are not taking the interest in the matter that they should. The newspapers he said, are doing their full share of boosting. He further said that if private persons would exercise the same amount of interest in forestry, the project would result in great good within a very short time.

LON LEWIS GOES TO STAR

Manilla Young Man Resigns Position on Shelbyville Democrat.

Lon Lewis of Manilla, who has been employed on the editorial staff of the Shelbyville Democrat for more than a year, has resigned and accepted a position with the Indianapolis Star. Mr. Lewis got his first newspaper experience in this city while employed on the Daily Democrat. He is a very enterprising and an enthusiastic newspaper man and a very good position in the journalistic world is predicted for him. Gordon Thurston, city editor of the Shelbyville Morning News will take Lewis' position on the Democrat.

ADVERTISE EARLY.

Charles A. Greathouse, State superintendent of public instruction is urging that township trustees advertise for school supplies in June this year, instead of waiting until August or September, as was the case last year, when the delay was caused by the State board of accounts in its preparation of blank forms for receiving bids on supplies. Mr. Greathouse contends that better prices and better material, to say nothing of better deliveries, can be had by early advertising.

FOUR LEGGED CHICKEN.

(Connersville News.)

Now what can Rush county say. Fayette county has a prettier and a better behaved four legged chicken than Rush county ever produced, with all its boasting. Theodore Grubb brought to the News, in a match box Wednesday, a pretty, lively, Rhode Island chick with four fully developed feet. It was able to walk about like other chicks, using but two feet, carrying the extra feet behind in reserve for emergencies, as it were. The feet themselves are of regulation size and appearance but the legs above them are mere ligaments of flesh. Mr. Grubb says he will make every effort to raise the chicken to maturity.
